PART II—Section 4

Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

S.R.O. 153, dated 30th May 1959.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following further amendments in the Civilians in Defence Services (Temporary Service) Rules, 1949, namely:—

In the said Rules—

1. in rule 5, (i) for the first proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

“Provided that the service of any such Government servant may be terminated forthwith by payment to him of a sum equivalent to the amount of his pay plus allowances, at the same rates at which he was drawing them immediately before the termination of his services, for the period of the notice or, as the case may be, for the period by which such notice falls short of one month or any agreed longer period.”; and

(ii) the second proviso shall be omitted;

2. in sub-rule (1) of rule 6, for the third proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

“Provided further that when the services of a quasi-permanent Government servant are terminated under clause (ii), he shall be given three months’ notice and if, in any case, in which either no notice is given or the period of notice is less than three months then, with the sanction of the authority competent to terminate the services of such Government servant, a sum equivalent to his pay plus allowances for a period of three months or as the case may be, for the period by which the notice actually given to him falls short of three months, shall be paid to him at the same rates at which he was drawing them immediately before the termination of his services, and, if he is entitled to any gratuity such gratuity shall not be paid to him for the period in respect of which he receives a sum in lieu of notice.”

S.R.O. 154, dated 2nd June 1959.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 14 of the Territorial Army Act, 1948 (56 of 1948), the Central Government hereby makes the following further amendments in the Territorial Army Rules, 1948, namely:—

In sub-rule (1) of rule 20 of the said Rules, after clause (g), the following clauses shall be inserted, namely:—

“(h) Every such person may, under the orders of the Officer Commanding the Area, be embodied with the consent of his employer, if any, for the purpose of participating in a ceremonial parade for a period upto four consecutive days. This period of embodiment shall be in addition to the period of annual training prescribed in clauses (a), (b) and (c).

(i) A person, while embodied for annual training under clauses (a), (b) or (c) may be ordered to participate in a ceremonial parade for a period upto four consecutive days, in which case, the period of annual training for which such person was embodied shall be deemed to have been extended by the number of days spent by him in training for and participating in such ceremonial parade.”
